

SUNDAY, MAY 17

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES
By SARA MOORE

The last meeting of the Old Roman Latin club was held Thursday afternoon. The following program was given:

Latin song, "Flevit Lepus Parvulus," by Ralph Howell.

Reading, Cicerone, by Betty Colt.

Song, "Roses of Picardy," by Mrs. Clara Hawkins, accompanied by Mrs. Abbie Durkee.

Remarks by the council, Lucille Ross.

The presentation of gifts from the club to the two consuls, Lucille Ross and Walter Howe, by Max Krakauer.

The inter-class vocabulary and sentence contest was won by Kathleen Robinson, of Miss Catherine Flynn's 2A class.

The following students, representing the classes named, took part in the contest: 4A, Ray Stillwell; 2A, Elizabeth Kemmerer; 3B, Naomi Sensiba; 2A, Kathleen Robinson, Celia Wanner, Burton Marshall; 2B, Frances Prather, Mathilde Hardaway, Coyne Milstead, Arthur Schare; 1A, Bernice Hamke and Dorothy Allen; 1B, Louise Hunter, who was the second to the last to sit down, although she has only had one-half year of Latin.

Journalism class students are busy working on part of a Tatler, to be issued the first day of school in the fall term. This issue will acquaint new students with the school. By the issuance of a paper at the start of the term the faculty hopes to eliminate much of the confusion that has been prevalent during past years.

Forty-two letters for athletic activities have been or will be awarded in the various lines of sports to high school athletes this year, according to information obtained from the physical training headquarters. These were awarded for football, baseball, basketball, and tennis.

Letters in football were given to Joe Carson, captain; Abel Soto, Seldon Parmalee, James Johnson, Hughie Washington, W. T. Powell, Irvin Drysdale, John Campbell, athletic commissioner; Henry Cass, Forrest Sackett, Arthur Botha, Paul Davison, Clifford Hatcher, Wardwell Warren, Byron Hammons, Willie Wilkins, Billy Owen, Cecil Pollock and Harry Russell. Carson earned his third letter, while those who received their second insignias were Soto, Parmalee, Johnson, Worthington and Paul.

Men who earned letters in basketball were: Willie Carson, captain; Sidney Cohen, Abel Soto, Sidney Borachow, Salvador Hultrom, Harry Russell, Joe Carson, George Golden and George Pierce. Willie Carson and Cohen earned their third letters, while Soto, Borachow and Hultrom were on for the second time.

Sidney Cohen, captain, and Abel Soto will receive their fourth year letters, and W. T. Powell will be awarded his third. Other men who will be given basketball insignias are Forrest Sackett, Harry Russell, Willie Carson, Joe Carson, Sewell Fields, Ewing Graham, Byron Hammons, Willie Wilkins and Yurralde. Sackett, Willie Carson and Russell will be awarded letters for baseball for the second time.

Buford Burke and Louie Ferguson have each earned the coveted "E" as members of the tennis team. Ferguson is receiving the honor for the second time.

The following students of the Latin department made grades of 90, or above,