

HIGH LIGHTS

Today is Ladies day. Not to be outdone by Wrigley, the chewing gum king, the Old Pueblo baseball club has set aside each Friday for the ladies, who enter free.

George Hubbell, the brother of the famed Carl Hubbell, will hurl for Phoenix today. It is singular that Sid Cohen, Andy's brother, is also with the Solons, making the New York Giants and Senators sort of related—not in baseball playing, though.

Wagner forgot the bases were loaded in the seventh and stood on third while Williamson was throwing home to force him out. It looked bad, but Mitchell's subsequent wild pitch evened things up.

Wally Ritter is slated for duty on the mound today. Manager McCarl has changed his rotation of flingers, with Tolson due to work tomorrow and Anderson Sunday. Barringer will have his three days' rest and be ready to relieve the Sunday worker if he gets in trouble.

Outstanding plays yesterday went to Sid Cohen, who made a running catch of Boroja's hard hit. Burke made a nice stop of Williamson's bad throw in the eighth.
