El Paso Faces Task of Reducing Club; Bayard Sweeps All Three Tilts

By BOB INGRAM

THE task of reducing the El Paso baseball team down to within the player limit of 12 men as required by the Copper league rules will occupy Mgr. Tom Seaton's attention this week before the Giants leave for Chino.

Fifteen players, three over the limit, occupied the bench during the series just closed with Ft. Bayard. The Vets were good enough not to register a kick but the regular players of the club who get their salary from a division of the gate receipts look at the excess baggage with no little amount of ill-feeling.

Cohen to Help Club.

The unexpected return of Sydney Cohen from the New York Giants will add strength and luster to the club but it is doubtful if Hal Chase, outside of attracting a few customers inside the gates, will be of any benefit to the team.

The once great time first baseman is slow and unsteady because of an injured leg sustained last fall in an automobile accident. He played first base during the last series but lacked many of the sterling qualities the Hal Chase of old and even of last year showed. The injured leg also hurt his batting. It threw him off his regular stance at the plate because he could not bear his full weight on it.

Lose Two Games

Chase himself says his leg will soon be mended until he will be able to play like of old but it is hard to see but what it will get worse under the strain of playing, espec-

Texas Furniture Chalk Up Second Straight in Loop

Texas Furniture team, winner of the first half championship in the Commercial league, won its second straight victory in the second half by trouncing the McMath Printers, 17 to 6 Sunday.

Furniture dealers scored 10 runs in the third inning of their game.

The Rio Grande Lumber Co., beat the B. B. F. C. team, 10 to 4. The Lumber team was held to two runs until the seventh and eighth inning when they scored 10 runs and came from behind to win.

Brown Crockers defeated the B. B. B. Shoemen, 15 to 3.
