Even those who believe Caldwell was not entitled to the decision must agree that Walter kept his promise to work on Dick Dundee so there would be no argument about who was the better looking at the end.

* * *

Dick's eye is still in mourning. Looks as though it died following the shock of that decision.

* * *

Another good way for a boxer to learn to think fast on his feet is to become a pedestrian.

* * *

Dynamite Sanchez wants to know "What's the use of winning a fight if someone just puts it in the paper that the other boy won, anyway."

* * *

John McGraw says the Giants are a long distance from being in" despite the long lead they have copped on the rest of the field.

* * *

These "experts" who spill heavy ink on their knocks and glide over long since passed away—but not that spilled by wrestling and fight promoters and managers.

* * *

Otto Floto will soon start a school of "ancient and worn out pugs."

* * *

He is now spilling the publicity ink on the feasibility for a comeback for Willie Ritchie and Young Corbett.

* * *

Why not send Jim Corbett or Jim Jeffries against Dempsey?

* * *

Battling Herrera may be substituted for Ever Hammer as opponent for Ray Long at the Juarez Bullring, May 30.
