

Record Crowd Sees Trio of Ex-Big Leaguers in Douglas Uniforms; Play Today at 3

Douglas had Hal Chase, "Chick" Gandil and "Buck" Weaver, former big leaguers, in their lineup yesterday afternoon, but the Blues lost to the El Paso Colts, 4 to 4.

"Preacher" Muns, six foot five right-hander, on the El Paso pitching staff, was the principal reason why the Blues, with all their stars, were the losers. Muns allowed but four scattered hits and stuck out eight in tending to his duties on the mound. But he didn't stop there. With the score tied at 1-1 in the last of the seventh he slammed out a mighty triple to the corner of the field in left, and soon scored to put El Paso ahead, 2-1. In the last of the eighth his single through the pitcher's box scored Jamski and Frierson. Williams also scoring after the hit as the result of an error, and then Muns scored himself.

That's a pretty good day's work, even for a gent as tall as Muns. Three errors, a walk and a single enabled the Blues to rally for three runs in the first of the ninth, but Muns kept pitching along and made chances off the Blue players' bats so easy to field that finally the Colts got their arms tamed down and retired the side.

Jamski with two singles and Routh with two singles were Muns' chief aides in the offensive line.

Because he wasn't able to sign the twirler that he was, after, Manager Chase took the mound himself and played Gandil on first, Fagan at second, Weaver at short and Salazar at third.

Chase never showed the arm very fast, and with his tantalizing slow ball delivery had the Colt batters woody much of the way—that is, outside of Muns, Jamski and Routh.

The two teams meet again this afternoon in Dudley field. They start at 3. Wells will probably be on the firing line for Douglas, with either Brown or Jack Smith pitching for El Paso.

Weaver and Gandil did some nice work in the field, Weaver making a couple of excellent stops at short and Gandil covering the first sack in great style.

FIRST INNING.

Douglas—Jamski threw out MacRae. He also threw out Tate. Weaver was out to Sidney Cohen, unassisted. No runs, no hits, no errors.

El Paso—With the first pitch of Chase to Routh, Umpire Gregory examined the ball. Chase and the umpire held a conference at the plate. On the second pitch, Gregory threw the ball that Chase had been using out. Douglas players gathered around Gregory in heated conference. Routh was out to Chase, unassisted, the ball going along the first base line and chase fielding it before it got to Gandil. Salazar threw out Ferguson. Chase hit Meyers. Craig walked. Meyers going to second. Salazar muffed Jamski's chance, letting it slip from his fingers, and the bases were loaded. Frierson flied to MacRae. No runs, no hits, one error.

SECOND INNING.

Douglas—Gandil, with a quick, sharp cut, singled sharply through the pitcher's box and over second. Muns had to get out of the way of the low-hit, but speeling single. Jackson hit a long fly to Williams. Chase was safe at first when Craig's throw pulled Cohen off first, Gandil going to second. Salazar hit into a double play, Muns to Jamski to Cohen. No runs, one hit, one error.

El Paso—Williams flied to MacRae. Salazar threw out Cohen. Chase's slow ball was working fine. Muns fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

THIRD INNING.

Douglas—Fagan fanned. Salmon was out to Cohen, unassisted. Muns threw out MacRae. No runs, no hits, no errors.

El Paso—Routh walked when Chase's slow ball failed to catch the corner. Routh stole second. Weaver sailed the ball over to first and Ferguson was out. Routh took too large a lead off second and was easy for Chase, who caught him with a throw to Fagan. Meyers walked. Craig singled sharply to short. Weaver knocked the ball down and held what looked a double to a single. Meyers going to second. Jamski singled to center, scoring Meyers, Craig going to second. Chase threw out Cohen. One run, two hits, no errors.

FOURTH INNING.

Douglas—Tate walked. Weaver fanned, hitting at a bad one for the third strike. Cohen made a great stop, bringing down Ferguson's high throw in attempt to catch Tate off first. Gandil fouled to Jamski. It was the first pitch to Gandil. Tate stole second. Ferguson threw wild to first on Jackson's hit along the third base line and Tate was safe at third and Jackson at first. Jackson stole second and when Ferguson threw way over Jamski's head at third, trying to get Tate, Tate scored. Cohen dropped Craig's throw and Chase was safe at first, Jackson going to third. Salazar was hit by a pitched ball and the bases were loaded. Muns threw out

El Paso—Weaver threw out Routh. Ferguson singled to left. Meyers flied to Tate. Salazar threw out Craig. No runs, one hit, no errors.

SIXTH INNING.

Douglas—Jamski threw out Weaver. Gandil walked. Muns threw out Jackson and Gandil went to second. Muns threw out Chase, making a pretty play of it, and the fans applauded. No runs, no hits, no errors.

El Paso—Jamski singled to center. Fagan threw out Frierson and Jamski went to second. Salazar threw out Williams. Chase threw out Cohen. No runs, one hit, no errors.

SEVENTH INNING.

Douglas—Salazar fanned. Fagan fanned. Craig threw out Salmon. No runs, no hits, no errors.

El Paso—Muns hit the first ball pitched to him to the corner of the field in left. By running faster he would have made a homer of it, but he took his time and made it a triple. Routh followed with a single between first and second on the next pitch, scoring Muns. The crowd applauded Muns for his hit. Ferguson flied to Tate. Salazar muffed Meyers' bouncer and Meyers was safe at first and Routh at second. Craig hit into a double play, Weaver to Fagan to Gandil. Weaver made a great stop to start the double play and the crowd applauded him when he came in. One run, two hits, one error.

EIGHTH INNING.

DOUGLAS—MacRae fanned. Tate singled to left. Weaver singled cleanly into right, sending Tate to third. Gandil fouled to Cohen. Weaver stole second. Jackson fanned, swinging hard. No runs, two hits, no errors.

El PASO—Jamski walked. Frierson laid down a perfect bunt, beating Chase's throw, and Jamski was safe at second and Frierson at first. Williams beat out an infield single toward third and the bases were loaded. Cohen fanned. Muns hit the first ball pitched to him for a clean single to center, scoring Jamski and Frierson, and when Salazar let MacRae's throw go through him Williams scored. Muns went to third on the error. Routh singled past first, scoring Muns. Here Fagan made the prettiest play of the game when he leaped high in the air behind second base and got Ferguson's fly. It looked like a sure hit and Routh had started for second and he was doubled off first when Fagan threw to Gandil. The crowd roared its applause for the fielding stunt. Four runs, four hits, one error.

NINTH INNING.

DOUGLAS—Chase walked. Salazar fanned. Williams muffed Fagan's fly and Chase was safe at second and Fagan at first. Salmon hit to Cohen, who threw to Craig trying to get Fagan at second, Craig missed the throw and
