FERNANDEZ 'SAFE'

El Paso Outfielder and Miss Garcia Married at Dudley Field Home Plate

Enrique (Bacatete) Fernandez failed to get a hit in last night's game at Dudley Field, but the El Paso outfielder was safe at home, where he had been called out the night before on a close play of a game.

County Judge Victor Gilbert called Fernandez "safe" to the wild applause of 3343 spectators.

The El Paso outfielder was married to Miss Maria Ines Garcia of Juarez in the first home plate wedding ever held at Dudley Field.

The couple stood on a flower-banked altar decorated by Park Commissioner Hugo Meyer and the Lindsey Florists.

MRS. GUTSCH SINGS

Mrs. Minnie Gutsch sang two songs over the public address system, "Because," and "I Love You Truly."

The bride, her father, Raymundo Garcia, her bridesmaids and flower girls were driven to the pitcher's mound in an automobile. The bridegroom with his attendants, Sydney Cohen of the El Paso Baseball Club, and Francisco Montes of the Juarez club, waited at third base. Mr. Gilbert was at first base.

To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, the wedding party assembled at the improvised altar.

BRIDE WEARS WHITE

Before the ceremony, Fernandez pinned a corsage of flowers on his bride's left shoulder. She wore a white suit with a white hat to match. She looked beautiful.

At the completion of the ceremony, the bride and groom and their attendants walked under arched bats held by members of the El Paso team.

Fernandez and his bride were showered with gifts and cash, the total value of which was approximately $850.

MANY GIFTS

A total of $247.50 was raised before the game, and players of the El Paso club collected $328.13 more from the fans at the game against Globe-Miami.

Merchandise gifts included a five-piece coffee set, given by Fernandez's teammates; a Lane cedar chest and Philco combination radio and phonograph, given by the Union Furniture Co.; an electric toaster, given by the Popular Dry Goods Co.; an electric iron given by the White House; a ham, donated by Peyton Packing Co.; an electric
